The Spirit

The legend was born in the 17th Century, as the first European travelers explored Tibet, and tells of “Shangri-La” as a mythical valley, a mysterious and unreachable place, which evokes pure human desire and deep spirituality.

The name retraces the dream for explorations on motor-cycles hunting for beautiful and forgotten spots, in a word, searching for the Shangri-La.

Heritage comes from the need to create iconic and time-less garments, inspired by the past. Designed for Bikers, Rockers and Gentlemen.

Mission

Working hard to deliver high quality products from Northern Italy. The company founders are always on the road looking for new adventures, discovering places, meeting up people who share their interests and getting to know new fabric types and manufacturing techniques, valuable to keep their products up-to-date.

“By riding our motorbikes through Europe we come across sensational places and interesting heads. We tie up pleasure and business to offer the best quality-goods”, ends in style Daniel Verzeroli.

Craftsmanship

OUR VALUES - Every garment we make is the most authentic expression of our values. From the moment you step foot in the workshop and see the artisans at work, you can feel the sense of creativity and humanity of this place. They've been doing what they love for more than 40 years, with passion and using the same traditional techniques.

In a world where everything is mass-produced, we're turning back the clocks: we've chosen to invest our time, skills, and experience to highlight the Italian craftsmanship through the beauty of our products, in our identity.

ITALIAN EXCELLENCE - Our products are inspired by the iconic garments from the last Century, revisited with a unique Italian touch. They are synonymous with a flawless blend of superior craft skills, timelessness, attention to detail, and versatility.

They are an authentic portrayal of Italian excellence, our heritage, they combine manual work and creativity elevating the art of craftsmanship at its finest.

QUALITY - From top quality Steerhide to Front Quarter pull-up Horsehide, from Selvedge Denim to Recycled Kilim Wool, we personally source all of our leathers and fabrics directly from small producers around Italy and Europe.

MADE-TO-MEASURE - We offer all our clients a personalized experience. We accompany them with a tailored approach whether purchasing ready to wear or commissioning a Made-to-Measure jacket, or creating an entirely custom bespoke piece.

Proudly Hand Made in Italy.

AVIATORE B-3 Shearling Jacket

Inspired by early 40s type B-3 Flight jackets from the Second World War and revisited with a unique Italian touch, the Aviatore B-3 Shearling Jacket represents an authentic garment made of Italian Shearling Sheepskin reinforced with leather trimmings in vegetable tanned Lambskin from Tuscany (Italy).

The Shearling Sheepskin is the perfect natural insulator for cold weather. The soft sheep wool encases your body, ensuring maximum body warmth retention and at the same time wicking away excess moisture when the body generates it.

The bikers who sport the B-3 Jackets on cold winter road trips rely on their rugged and tough exteriors as much as they do on their soft and pliable interiors. The B-3 Jacket is a perfect reflection of their bravery and determination, providing much needed protection and comfort.

ENZO Leather Car Coat

Inspired by 1940s Car Coats and revisited with a unique Italian touch, the Enzo Leather Car Coat represents an authentic garment made of vegetable tanned full grain Lambskin from Tuscany (Italy).

The Car Coat was originally designed to protect drivers from the elements when riding in open-top vehicles, providing maximum warmth and coverage. It represents a perfect balance of timeless style and functionality, a wardrobe must-have.

Vegetable-tanned leather embodies the experience of our life. It matures over time, a rare material that actually improves with age and use. These changes and personalizations precisely testify the naturalness of the product. The innate colors of the tannins give warm tones to the leather, which tend to intensify with the passage of time and daily use.

The lining is made of “Sand” color cotton, and the leather collar-tab closes the neck to keep you warm during winter and cold trips.

BIVACCO Western Down Jacket

Inspired by 1960s Cowboy Jackets and revisited with a unique Italian touch, the Bivacco Western Down Jacket represents an authentic garment made of Recycled 80% Goose Down / 20% Feather from Tuscany (Italy) with the traditional western yoke made with Front Quarter Pull-up Horsehide by Charles F. Stead, one of the oldest tanneries in the UK (since 1890s in Leeds, United Kingdom).

The external layer is made of 100% Recycled Ecopath® Polyester from Prato (Italy), 100% waterproof and breathable. Combined with Responsibly-sourced Goose Down (Recycled 80% Goose Down / 20% Feather), the Bivacco guarantees warmth and protection against any bad weather condition, no matter how wet and cold. The Recycled Goose Down from Tuscany (Italy) is certified by GRS (Global Recycle Standard).

The Recycled Ecopath® Polyester from Prato (Italy) is produced using discard of workmanship of knitwear-heads, clothing and clippings of garment.

The Front Quarter Pull-up Horsehide by Charles F. Stead is made by selected European Full Grain horse hides tanned with Steads' traditional garment tannage and finished with a blend of "classic pull-up" waxes. This produces a pure-aniline leather with a Unique Rich character.

DON GENTILE A-2 Hand Painted Flight Jacket

Inspired by 1940s Flight Jackets from WWII and revisited with a unique Italian touch, the Don Gentile A-2 Flight Jacket represents an authentic garment made of vegetable tanned full grain Lambskin from Tuscany (Italy).

The Type A-2 flight jacket was originally invented and developed for U.S. Army Air Forces pilots, Navigators and Bombardiers.

A special Hand Painted artwork on the back of the jacket, referenced from the authentic nose Art painted on the fuselage of P-51 Mustang Bomber “Shangri-La” used by Major Don Gentile himself.

In salute to the WWII trend among pilots of painting inspiring slogans on their planes and backs of their jackets for good luck.

CHIODO Black Horsehide Leather Jacket

Inspired by 1950s Motorcycle jackets and revisited with a unique Italian touch, the Chiodo Horsehide Leather Jacket represents an authentic garment made of chrome tanned, drum dyed, full grain Horsehide from Vicenza (Italy).

The Full Grain Horsehide from Vicenza (Italy) is first grade horsehide with a ton of character and deep richness. It ages beautifully, developing fantastic fades, creases and patina. Thickness is around 1,1mm, making the Chiodo an outstanding and high-end premium jacket.

Natural leathers like the Vicenza Horsehide have their own distinctive character and slight differences in texture, grain, scratches and color tone are signs of its authenticity.

A double-breasted front provides an additional layer of protection to the chest, with a storm flap designed to keep water away from the body, protecting every Rider on the Storm. The most distinctive feature of the jacket, however, remains the legendary D-Pocket, also known as the “Gun,” or “Map” pocket.

Inspired by 1950s Motorcycle jackets and revisited with a unique Italian touch, the Chiodo Horsehide Leather Jacket represents an authentic garment made of Front Quarter Pull-up Horsehide by Charles F. Stead, one of the oldest tanneries in the UK (since 1890s in Leeds, UK).

The Front Quarter Pull-up Horsehide by Charles F. Stead is made by selected European Full Grain horse hides tanned with Steads’ traditional garment tannage and finished with a blend of “classic pull-up” waxes. This produces a pure-aniline leather with a Unique Rich character.

Charles F. Stead is a traditional family business established in 1895, remained faithful to the artisanal skills, techniques and know-how that others have forgotten, taking the time to work the leathers in the traditional way. These skills continue to live on in harmony with modern production technologies. Quality leather can never be a commoditized product, with each hide having its own characteristics, and they treat it accordingly.

A double-breasted front provides an additional layer of protection to the chest, with a storm flap designed to keep water away from the body, protecting every Rider on the Storm. The most distinctive feature of the jacket, however, remains the legendary D-Pocket, also known as the “Gun,” or “Map” pocket.

EXPLORATOR Leather Jacket

Inspired by late 40s British motorcycle jackets and revisited with a unique Italian touch, the Explorer Leather Jacket represents an authentic garment made of vegetable tanned, drum dyed, full grain Lambskin from Tuscany (Italy).

The Vegetable-tanned leather embodies the experience of our life. It matures over time, a rare material that actually improves with age and use, it's a Natural product that ages just like Wood. The oils from your hands, water, dirt, heat and sunlight will leave their mark, writing the story of your jacket, that will last for a lifetime.

The lining is made of a special Bergamo Map 100% cotton. An Original ancient Map of Bergamo Territory from 17th century found in an old archive, and brought back to life on Cotton.

Crafted in Italy in the Como Lake district, the Bergamo Map Cotton Lining has been created to guide the explorers during their trips hunting for unforgettable places and moments, in a nutshell, looking for the Shangri-La.

EXPLORATOR Waxed Canvas Jacket

Inspired by late 40s British motorcycle jackets and revisited with a unique Italian touch, the Explorer Waxed Canvas Jacket represents an authentic garment made of 100% Cotton Waxed Canvas Desert Tumbled 14,7 Oz by Halley Stevensons, one of the oldest waxed cotton mill in the world (since 1864 - Dundee, Scotland).

The Waxed Canvas Desert Tumbled 14,7 Oz by Halley Stevensons provided an extraordinary layer of protection against any bad weather condition: wind, rain and mud. As the name suggests, Desert is a dry wax finish. The fabric has been through a tumbling process which softens the firm handle and gives the distressed worn appearance with unique vintage aesthetic.

The lining is made of a special Bergamo Map 100% cotton. An Original ancient Map of Bergamo Territory from 17th century found in an old archive, and brought back to life on Cotton.

Whiskey Horsehide Leather Jacket

Inspired by late 40s Sport jackets and revisited with a unique Italian touch, the Varenne Horsehide represents an authentic garment made of Front Quarter Pull-up Horsehide by Charles F. Stead, one of the oldest tanneries in the UK (since 1890s in Leeds, United Kingdom), and “Espresso Coffee” color viscose lining.

The Front Quarter Pull-up Horsehide by Charles F. Stead is made by selected European Full Grain horse hides tanned with Steads’ traditional garment tannage and finished with a blend of “classic pull-up” waxes. This produces a pure-aniline leather with a Unique Rich character.

Charles F. Stead is a traditional family business established in 1895, remained faithful to the artisanal skills, techniques and know-how that others have forgotten, taking the time to work the leathers in the traditional way. These skills continue to live on in harmony with modern production technologies. Quality leather can never be a commoditized product, with each hide having its own characteristics, and they treat it accordingly.

The name Varenne is a tribute to the legendary Italian horse, the best Racer of All Time.

SAFARI Ventile® Eco Recycled Jacket

Inspired by mid 30s Safari jackets and revisited with a unique Italian touch, the Safari Ventile® Eco Recycled Jacket represents an authentic garment made of 100% Cotton Ventile® Eco Recycled, the first High-Performance Fabric made entirely from Recycled Cotton since 1943. This pioneering, award-winning fabric has been designed to achieve the best balance of performance, comfort, and sustainability. Using technological advances, Ventile® draws inspiration from Ventile’s unsurpassed performance characteristics. The all-weather fabric is constructed so that it breathes naturally and far more effectively than other all-weather fabrics. The result is a high-performance fabric that is as reliable as it is sustainable.

The unique weatherproof qualities of the fabric ensured that it was also widely championed by outdoor enthusiasts and adventurers alike. Ventile® was used in the first summit of Everest in 1953 and by Sir Ranulph Fiennes when he crossed the Arctic from 1979 – 1982.

SAFARI Denim Jacket

Inspired by mid 30s Safari jackets and revisited with a unique Italian touch, the Safari Denim Jacket represents an authentic garment made of Ecrú Raw Denim 12,5 Oz by Candiani Denim (Milan, Italy), a unique example of “Made in Italy” excellence.

As the name suggests, the Safari jacket was created for use in the African bush, developed as a practical and lightweight solution for regiments fighting in the South African heat of the Boer War. Unlined construction for the best comfort and breathable feeling. Featuring a Sartorial Central Gusset on the back to enhance movement and comfort, and four roomy “Safari” tailoring Pockets specifically made for Travels on the Road.

The Ecrú Raw Denim 12,5 Oz by Candiani is a classic 3x1 Selvedge Right Hand Twill, open weave construction with a marked salt and pepper effect. This fabric has the special “V Sizing”, a vegetal sizing compound used in the dyeing process, 100% biodegradable and non-toxic. This compound replaces all hazardous chemicals like PVA to ensure a micro-plastics Free Dye process.

The yarn “72 warp” is one of the Candiani’s historical developments, designed over 25 years ago by Gianluigi Candiani. This yarn has a unique authentic character and recalls the original denim of the old days. Ecrú is the natural beige color of the cotton, finished for an authentic denim look.

STELVIO Covert Wool Dispatch Rider Coat

Inspired by late 10s Dispatch Rider coats from the First World War and revisited with a unique Italian touch, the Stelvio Dispatch Rider Coat represents an authentic garment made of 100% Covert Wool 15 Oz by Vitale Barberis Canonico, the oldest woolen mill in the world (Biella, Italy).

Vitale Barberis Canonico was born in 1663 and located in Biella (Northern Italy), the epicenter of the Italian wool production. With over three centuries of documented history, and a reputation for the highest quality, it represents the Italian Heritage at its best.

The Covert Wool is a worsted batavia weave, of winter weight, clear-cut and compact. This material was primarily used for apparel worn by hunters and riders, created with the specific purpose of withstanding all kinds of weather, mud, and bush-encounters during any good hunt. A double-breasted front provided an additional layer of protection to the chest, with a storm flap designed to keep water away from the body. The most distinctive feature of the coat, however, remains the slanted chest “Map” pocket used by the dispatch riders to carry the messages.
